ABOUT WENDY

Wendy Magee was born and raised in Port Arthur, TX, and is now an ordained minister living in New Orleans, LA. She works as the Director of Operations for CASA Jefferson, a non-profit organization that trains community volunteers to advocate for children in foster care, and attends Mount Carmel Ministry, where she works with the youth and young adult ministry alongside her husband of nine years, David Magee Jr.

Wendy published And She Called Him Lord: Eliminating the Fear of Submission in 2016, and from that, began her Speak UP ministry in January 2017 to help reach and heal broken marriages and encourage those who desire to be married. The goal of Speak UP is to “lift up marriages and relationships through edification and empowerment.” Since then, Wendy has spoken throughout New Orleans on the virtues of a Godly marriage.

Wendy has a Bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice from Wiley College, and a Master's Degree in Human Services from Lubbock Christian University. She enjoys spending time with her family, playing volleyball, and working with young adults through her husband's non-profit H.Y.P.E. (Harnessing Youths' Potential and Energy). The couple works with youth and young adults through mentorship, life skills coaching, and ministering.

When she isn't writing, Wendy enjoys distance running, having participated in 5 and 10Ks and half marathons around the city. She is available for motivational speaking, workshops, marriage/single ministries and panel discussions. She is scheduled to release the And She Called Him Lord: Eliminating the Fear of Submission Study Guide in the summer of 2017, and A Servant Attitude: Delayed Obedience is Disobedience, which will discuss the importance of humility and having a heart for service, in September 2018.

THE READERS HAVE SPOKEN

Your book has been a wonderful experience for me, and I believe it will enlighten others to the beautiful portrait marriage can be, and was designed to be from the beginning!

- Greg Bridges, Reader

Awesomely written. Love the transparency love the guidance love the leading of the Holy Spirit in writing of the specific chapters love the workbook on what you learn and what you need to pray to God about.

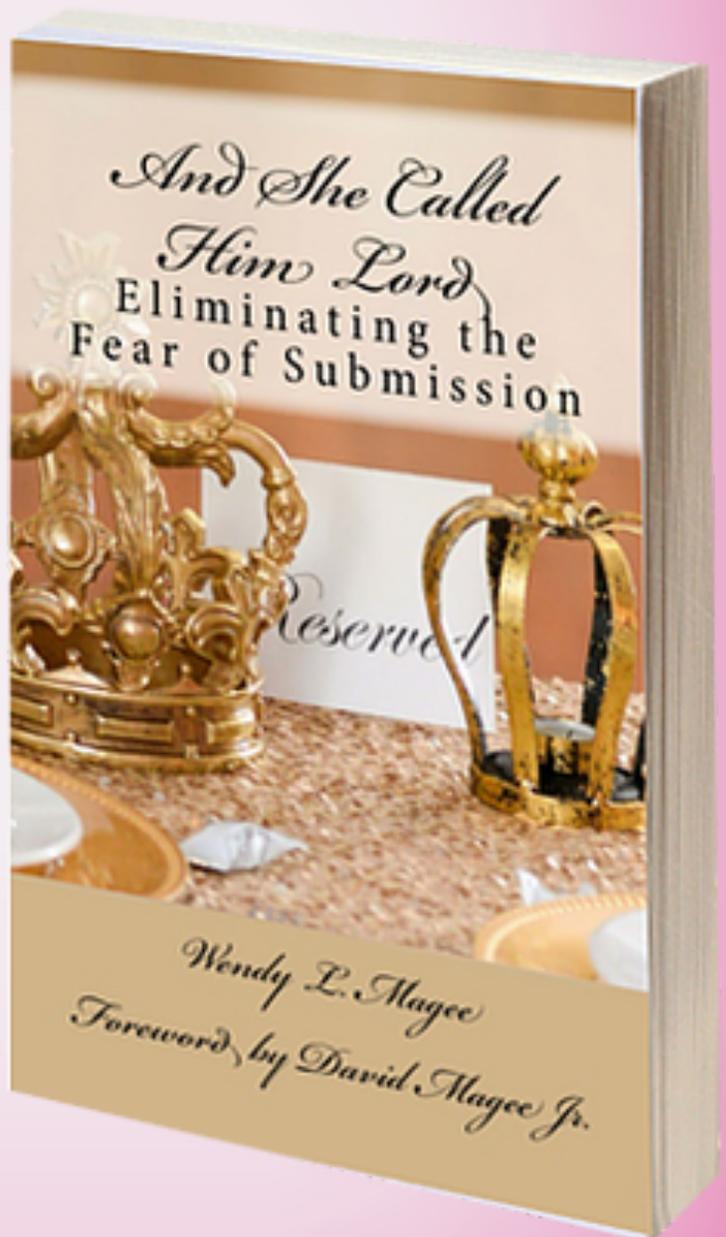

*- Lady Cynthia Bolden,
Co-Pastor Evangelistic
Ministries Church*

All of it is required to have a strong foundation and understand everyone's position in marriage.

- Clarita Vaughn, Author

I am a single woman, but this book gave great insight on how single Christian women should be preparing themselves for marriage and submission. Wonderful book that is backed by scripture.

- Keisha Milton, Reader
